

General Washington said "Great Benedict Arnold has run off to the enemy!" The General then left the room and wept.