

When I am dead I wish my monument to be builded only in the hearts and memories of my brethren of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite [of Freemasonry].