

On the second day of August, patrol torpedo boat one zero nine was lost in action in Blakett Strait two miles southwest of Meresu Cove, with a crew of twelve. We request any information you may have about possible survivors.