

Thanksgiving SILLY STORY Word Fun

In Jamestown, way back in _____, the _____, a pilgrim family, a year in any century celebrity last name, plural were ever so _____ to prepare for their very first Thanksgiving _____. Preparing emotion adjective singular noun for this big, important _____ was going to take a lot of planning, preparation, and, of same singular noun
course, a _____ ... noun that starts with "p"

Your Own Thanksgiving Silly Story

Print out this game, and play it around the table between turkey and pie!

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Choose ONE player to be the READER.
2. The rest of the players are the WRITERS.
3. The reader asks each WRITER in turn to call out a word—an adjective, noun, verb (etc.) or what ever the space calls for—and inserts that word into the appropriate blank spaces in the story.
4. When all the words are filled in, the READER may read the story out loud OR select another player to read the completed story.
5. Try not to laugh too hard! Laughing hard on a full tummy is probably not a good idea!

In Jamestown, way back in _____, the _____, a pilgrim family,
a year in any century celebrity last name, plural
were ever so _____ to prepare for their very first Thanksgiving _____.
emotion adjective singular noun
Preparing for this big, important _____ was going to take a lot of planning, same singular noun
preparation, and, of course, a _____. noun that starts with "p"

First, the parents were going to have to find the right size of _____ in plenty of time to animal keep it in the _____ and fatten it up by giving it lots and lots of _____ to eat. Next noun food
they would have to decide what _____ to assign their neighbors and friends to bring.
plural noun
Mr. _____, the kindly older next-door neighbor, _____ offered to lend the male celebrity name adverb pilgrim family his _____ and _____ talents for the big hunt. _____, household item hobby Female celebrity name his companion, _____ offered her talents as a _____ in preparation for the big adverb profession event. It was truly a community _____. noun

When the day finally arrived, all the people of Jamestown _____ joined together—the adverb young, the old, the _____ and the _____. While the grown-ups _____ adjective adjective past tense verb around the table, the children of the village played _____ and ran around chasing the a game _____ in the yard. After much anticipation it was time sit down at the _____ and animals large object join _____ to count their _____. They all gave thanks for their many _____, body parts plural noun plural noun and after they all said, " _____!" they gobbled down their Thanksgiving _____.
Exclamation food

THE END

FOR DUMMIES
A Wiley Brand
www.dummies.com

Thanksgiving SILLY STORY