

Turkey TRIVIA

Time to Talk Turkey

Use this handy printable sheet either to test or impress the turkeys sitting around your table!

Q:

A:

What is a baby turkey called?

A poult!

Turkey TRIVIA

FOR DUMMIES
A Wiley Brand
www.dummies.com

Q: What is the top turkey producing state?

A: Minnesota, followed by North Carolina

Q: Which U.S. president proclaimed Thanksgiving a national holiday?

A: Abraham Lincoln

Q: Which month is National Turkey Lovers Month?

A: June

Q: Approximately how many feathers do turkeys have at maturity?

A: 3,500

Q: What percentage of Americans eat turkey at Thanksgiving?

A: 95 percent

Q: What are the top five ways people enjoy leftover Thanksgiving turkey?

A: Sandwich, soup, casserole, stir-fry, salad

Other Fascinating Turkey Trivia

Only tom turkeys "gobble."
Hen turkeys "click."

Wild turkeys can fly for short distances up to 55 MPH and can run 20 MPH. Domesticated turkeys cannot fly.

The costume Big Bird wears on "Sesame Street" is rumored to be made of turkey feathers.

Q: What temperature should the thermometer in a turkey's thigh register to indicate it is done?

A: 180° F

Q: What was the first meal eaten on the moon?

A: Foil food packets containing roasted turkey and all the trimmings

Q: How long is the incubation period to hatch a turkey egg?

A: 28 days

Q: What is a baby turkey called?

A: A poult!